Survivor still awaiting justice

Case Story - Tania Zaman • Day of incident: 17th Aug 2020

26-years-old Tania lived harmoniously with her husband in Jessore and helped him in his business. She saved up to do something of her own one day. A year before the incident, Jewel, their neighbors...Read more

What's it like being a legal officer at ASF?

Former legal officer Jyoti Barua shares her experience

I joined ASF early 2021 as a Legal Officer. The thought of shouldering the responsibility to bring justice to survivors who otherwise had limited access to it was nerve-racking at the least...Read more

Stories to take to the world

Intern Farzana Neela reflects on her journey writing survivor case stories

I interned at ASF for 2 months writing survivor case stories in Bangla. During this time one thing consistently left me in awe-how survivors could narrate their painful stories and still paint half a...Read more
